M'AULIFFE CASE CALLED A SERIOUS MENACE TO LAW.

Greater New York Democracy, Fifth Assembly District, Commends The World.

M'AULIFFE REWARD DOUBLED!*The First $1,000.

The World will pay $1,000 to the man who personated James McAuliffe in the West Fifty-fourth street court on the morning of Feb. 16 last, he to establish that fact, or to any person or persons who shall produce the man who personated McAuliffe at the address and time mentioned and prove that he is the man who personated McAuliffe.

The World will further guarantee to such "dummy" absolute protection and immunity from arrest, prosecution or persecution.
The World has the assurances of District-Attorney Jerome that this man shall not be prosecuted nor molested if he comes forward and tells the truth.

The Second $1,000.

The World will pay $1,000 more to the person or persons who shall furnish with information that shall lead to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons guilty of the murder of James McAuliffe, who was found dying in front of No. 863 Sixth avenue on Sunday morning, Feb. 16, 1902.

So long as the murder, for such we believe it to have been, of James McAuliffe remains an unsolved police mystery and the perpetrators remain at liberty there exists a serious menace to the administration of all law in New York.

The failure of the police to find the offender continues to be an unmerited reproach to all the members of the police force, and if those charged with the administration of city affairs, whom we aided in electing, remain supine, indifferent or incapable of the work of avenging this monstrous crime against justice and decent citizenship, the task of finding the murderer or murderers of James McAuliffe must be the work of private initiative, and so we heartily commend and approve the course of the New York World in the great public service it is rendering.—Resolution of the Greater New York Democracy, Fifth Assembly District.

The Greater New York Democracy of the Fifth Assembly District, one of the strongest political organizations on the lower west side, has followed in the lead of the Board of Aldermen, the Citizens' Union and other public bodies by inducing The World's action in trying to bring to justice the murderers of James McAuliffe, the Glennon witness.

At a called meeting in its headquarters, Sixth avenue and Fourth street, T.
J. Manure, the executive member of the organization, introduced the McAuliffe resolution. It was enthusiastically discussed and adopted.

Many inquiries have been made as to what was done by the official investigation made by Police Inspector Harley.
The investigation was secret and the nature of the inspector's report has been kept secret, but little of value was developed. Witnesses who had made false statements to reporters changed them when "interviewed" by detectives before they were taken before Inspector Harley.

Capt. Donohue, who was in command of the West Forty-seventh street station and who was the official most directly concerned in the death of McAuliffe, was not called as a witness. As former Assistant District-Attorney Francis A.
Weilman said of the Harley inquiry:
"It was an investigation for the Police Department by the Police Department."

Messrs. Bennett & Templeton, says that what Mr. Grossman receives will be, and was intended to be, in lieu of fees for many legal services by Mr. Gross-man to Anna Hart.

"A contest is threatened," Mr. Hoffman says, "by the surety company which insured the bank against Schrie-ber's default of $128,000. The husband will not contest."

BOSTON BREWERY STRIKE.

More Than 1,500 Workmen Out and Others May Join Them.

BOSTON, April 3.—What promises to be a protracted labor contest began here this morning, when 1,500 brewery workmen and 72 firemen employed in Boston breweries refused to go to work.

A further strike of 500 bottlers, coopers and stationary engineers employed in the breweries is threatened within the next twenty-four hours.

SIX KILLED BY EXPLOSION.

Lancashire Miners Victims of Fire Damp—Others Entombed.

LONDON, April 3.—Six men were killed as the result of an explosion of fire damp at night in a colliery at Wigan, Lancashire.

A number of men were entombed at Dunfermline, Scotland, this morning, owing to a similar accident.

POLICE SHIELD WIFE SLAYER.

System Protects Policeman O'Brien, Who Shot Spouse.

The Flatbush police are making a determined effort to shield Policeman John J. O'Brien, who shot and killed his wife yesterday afternoon while in a drunken rage.

"The System" is apparently to be carried out to the extent of protecting members of the force who commit murders even for purely domestic reasons.
Capt. William Knipe in his official report of the shooting says:
"It appears that there was no intent to do bodily injury. When I reached the house I found O'Brien standing over the dead body. He did not comprehend the terrible tragedy of which he was the cause."

In an interview with an Evening World reporter, Capt. Knipe went further than he dared in his official report. He said about the being an accident and intimated that the policeman was insane. As a matter of fact he was intoxicated so much so—that he was on the verge of delirium tremens all night.

"When we entered the room," said this captain, "O'Brien shook hands with us, called us by our first names and acted as though he was at a picnic instead of a tragedy. It is quite apparent that it was an accident. The policeman's six-year-old daughter, who witnessed the shooting, says there was no quarrel between her father and her mother and O'Brien himself says it was an accident.

"He told me there were four cartridges in his revolver and one empty chamber on which the trigger rested. He said he pulled twice and that at the second pull the revolver was discharged."

This is remarkably strong evidence that the shooting was accidental. Capt.
O'Brien refused to let reporters see the revolver he was in the police station. When he was charged with the shooting, despite the efforts of the captain to get the court clerk to make the charge homicide in a lesser degree, O'Brien was held for examination by Magistrate Steers. He was cool and collected and pleaded not guilty. The magistrate tried to keep him from reporters, but Magistrate Steers issued orders to let them speak to the prisoner. O'Brien said:
"All I've got to say is that it was an accident. I didn't intend to kill her. A better woman than my wife never lived."

O'Brien has retained former District-Attorney James W. Ridgway, of Brooklyn, to defend him. Ridgway defended Detective Redmond, who was convicted of killing a citizen of Bath Beach. De-mond was then declared insane and sent to an asylum.

Policeman William H. Ennis, who two months ago killed his wife and tried to kill his mother-in-law in "Madison" is in the Raymond Street Jail awaiting trial.
He is now said by his police friends to be insane.

CALLS FOR DRINK, DIES.

Laundryman Passes Away Before He Can Swallow Stimulant.

"Give me a drink, quick," said John Grady, of No. 181 West Houston street, as he walked into the back room of the Klondike saloon at No. 125 Bleecker street, at 7 o'clock this morning.
Proprietor Morris Jones gave him four fingers for five cents. He put the glass in front of Grady on a table and went out. Three minutes later he returned. The whiskey had not been touched but Grady was dead.
Dr. Bodman, of St. Vincent's Hospital, said he thought heart disease was the trouble. Grady was a steam laundry worker.

Simpson Crawford Co.*Friday's Offerings Are Unusually Attractive.

Each week we send around a notice to the various heads of departments to try to get something specially attractive from a value and economy standpoint for Friday's selling. The one idea of this great establishment is to offer superior goods for less money than will be found elsewhere, and Friday is the day on which we try to emphasize this point with more force, if possible, than at other times.
